Environmental Health Section 2024 Award

W. A. “Bill” Broadway Award

The W.A. “Bill” Broadway Award is named in honor of a founding member of the Environmental Health Section, NCPHA, Inc. Bill Broadway served the State of North Carolina as a sanitarian for over 45 years. He was always at the forefront of evolutionary changes in Environmental Health, and helped to develop educational requirements and performance standards for the profession. Bill was a national leader in the field of environmental health. He served as President of the National Environmental Health Association and on the National Sanitarian Foundation’s Council of Public Health consultants. He earned the respect and admiration of fellow sanitarians across the United States. The Award was commissioned in 1986 and W. A. “Bill” Broadway was the first recipient in 1987.

To be eligible for the W.A. “Bill” Broadway Award, a nominee must:

1. Be actively engaged in or contributing to the field of environmental health or a closely related field.
2. Have performed professional duties in the field of environmental health above and beyond the usual employment requirements to elevate the professional status of the sanitarian.
3. Exemplifies the characteristics and principles for which Bill Broadway stood.
4. Must not have been a past recipient of the award.
