NORTH CAROLINA PUBLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION

61st Annual Program

Environment: Today—Tomorrow? Forever?

North Carolina Public Health workers have been striving for many years to promote and provide a better environment for all people of our great state of North Carolina. In recent years there have been increased interest and action by the consuming public in the health of their environment. With this increased interest the jobs of public health workers will be made easier, more exciting, and more productive.

Environment: Today—Tomorrow? Forever?
